Report on "Covid-19 Vaccination Drive" on 3rd July 2021 at The Oxford College of Engineering

The Oxford College of Engineering along with Government of Karnataka and BBMP, Bengaluru, Government of Karnataka, organized "Covid-19 Vaccination Drive" on 3rd July, 2021. The drive was inaugurated with lamp lightening by Sri. M. Satish Reddy, MLA, Bommanahalli constituency, presided over by Sri.S.N.V.L. Narasimha Raju, Chairman, TOCE and Principal Dr.N.Kannan.

The motto of the event was to ensure vaccination to all our students and faculty to break the covid-19 network. Vaccination followed by SOP implementation will help making our campus free from Covid-19. Vaccines are critical for curtailing the COVID-19 pandemic and may represent an important tool for return to "normalcy" on college campuses. In this regard Covid-19 vaccination drive was organized to vaccinate the students and faculties of the college. Dr.N.Kannan addressed the gathering and appreciated the initiation of vaccination drive and whole heartedly thanked management for continuous effort and acknowledged the support of Sri. M. Satish Reddy, MLA, Bommanahalli constituency and BBMP,Bengaluru. He briefed that a total of 400 students were vaccinated during the event. The effort of management, staff and cooperation of NSS coordinators and the organizing committee, Dr.B.K.Manjunath Prof & Head of Biotechnology & Dr.Kanagavalli, Prof & Head of ISE department was well appreciated. The Health Officer, Hongasandra Primary Health Care, Bommanahalli ward appreciated effort of Management in organizing the event.
