Summary Report

The consolidated internal assessment tests exam time table is duly approved by exam dean, principal and director of the institution for both UG/PG courses. The internal assessment tests will be conducted in the both odd and even semester as per the timetable of institutional academic calendar. The internal assessment tests exam time table for the academic year 2017 (M.Tech Thermal Engineering course) and 2018 (design Engineering and thermal Engineering) is not available due to no admissions in PG programme. For the academic year 2020, internal assessment tests are conducted through the online mode due to COVID-19 pandemic. The internal assessment tests time table has been sent to all the students through the whats app groups. The internal assessment tests for the practical sessions in both odd and even semesters will be conducted at the end of the each semester. The final average marks for internal assessment tests will be awarded based on best of 3 internal assessment tests.
